

This Weeks 'What's Happening'

To view this week's menu please visit the news section of our website and the Week 3 Menu. Why not try some of the Change4Life healthy recipes at home!

Eid Mubarak to everyone celebrating this week. Please remember to celebrate EID safely this year by avoiding large gatherings and keeping to smaller events in your household or support bubble. If you are outdoors you can meet people in groups of 6, otherwise known as the Rule of 6, or two households. When you meet people from outside your household avoid hugging, maintain social distance and wear a face covering. Have a blessed Eid Al-Fitr.

Last week in red room the children showed an interest in banging pots and pans in the home corner area. So this week we have created a new music area for the children to explore sounds and songs. Try visiting Tiny Happy People and find out how to make a cardboard box guitar! At <https://www.bbc.co.uk/tiny-happy-people/how-to-a-box-guitar/zmxx6v4>

Wednesday
12th May

In blue and yellow rooms we have been listening to the Jack and the Beanstalk story and using the castle and the props to retell the narrative. This week the children are going to have the opportunity to retell the story themselves, by talking about the characters and seeing if they can remember the key events and phrases. Visit Tiny Happy People's Enjoy Stories page to find out how toys can bring stories to life at <https://www.bbc.co.uk/tiny-happy-people/enjoy-storytime/zbkc47h>

13th May

Our walk and talk café last week was a great success! Due to Eid we have cancelled our New Walk and Talk Café to Parkwood today and have rearranged it for Wednesday 19th May at 9.15am. To book a place please email office@strongclose.co.uk or call 01535 605272. Don't forget to bring a flask and we'll provide the biscuits!!

Friday
14th May

In green room last week the children started to notice the adult's cameras, and showed an interest in their own photographs on the wall. This week we will be using technology to capture the children's observations. We will then print out the photos they take and display them in a book for them to revisit. Why not explore and talk about family photographs at home with your child and use mirrors to talk about me and you and facial features.

Step into May, National Walking Month. Bradford Council is encouraging people to enjoy the health benefits of walking at the same time as exploring the district's breath taking scenery. In the Bradford area there is a vast range of walks to suit those looking for a short stroll or seasoned walkers wanting to go the extra mile.
