

Finding a Dentist

When looking for a dentist it is worth asking local friends and neighbours for their recommendations.

If you are new to the area or you are needing additional guidance, then search online; The NHS have a search facility online.
<http://www.nhs.uk/Service-Search/Dentists/LocationSearch/3>

Speak to your local dentist informing them of your specific condition/needs. They may well refer you to the community dental service, these can be found in hospitals, specialist health centres, mobile clinics and home visits.

