

This Weeks 'What's Happening'

Nursery Attendance—Every Day Counts Please ensure your child attends nursery every day because this regular routine will help your child settle and make progress in their learning through play. If your child is not in for any reason please call us on 01535 605272.

Visit the news section of our website for this weeks menu Week 1a from our summer menu. Why not try some of the Better Health, Healthier Families recipes at home! Visit <https://www.nhs.uk/healthier-families/recipes/>

Bank Holiday Monday

School is closed today for the Coronation Bank Holiday but why not follow the link below to find out about local events to celebrate the coronation.

Wednesday

Today is the first of three sessions for our MCRED Male Carers Reading Everyday project. If you're a Father, Grandfather, Uncle or Male Carer find out about range of practical tips for sharing books and you don't need to read or read English. During the sessions we will have male guest storytellers coming to visit. To book a place please call 01535 605272 or email office@strongclose.co.uk

This week

Last week in yellow, green and blue rooms, children explored making tea with water, lemons, oranges, herbal tea bags and tea sets. This week we are going to introduce other sensory materials such as corn flour and shaving foam. Why not create your own sensory bag filled with interesting materials? To find out more visit
