This week

In yellow, green and blue rooms last week the children have been tipping paint into the easel trays, so this week we are going to use different tools to make marks with paint. Children love to be able to make their mark and their growing skills with paint and pens supports them to be strong writers and makers of art. To find out more see 50 Things To Do Before You're 5 #3 Make Your Mark.

Wednesday 21st June

Early Words Together -is our new interactive workshop for parents and carers with practical suggestions and ideas to help with your child's communication, language and literacy skills. Each week you will receive a free book and there are also free goodies. Today 9.00-10.00am. To book a place email office@strongclose.co.uk

This week

In red and purple rooms the children have been exploring the playdough imprint balls and learning how to roll them and take turns. This week then we will be introducing ball skills both outside and at group time by taking turns to roll the ball to your friend. Find out how to develop taking turns at home with Tiny Happy People at
