

Strong Close Nursery School Intended Curriculum Progressive Skills and Outcomes

PRIME AREA 1. Communication and Language

	LISTENING, ATTENTION AND UNDERSTANDING	SPEAKING
By 36 months (Birth to 3 years from Development Matters)	I can recognise simple names and descriptions of objects – e.g. Katie’s coat, blue car	I can use up to 50 words
	I can listen to simple stories with the help of pictures and props – I can pay attention if focused, and with use of my name.	I can put 2/3 words together – Mummy come, What’s your name?
	I can respond correctly to simple instructions from a 3- or 4-word sentence	I can ask for help when needed
	I can understand simple questions – who, what, where	I am developing pretend play talk and conversations.
By 48 months (3-4 years from Development Matters)	I can listen to simple stories with the help of pictures	I can talk about what I am doing and things I remember
	I can listen to longer stories and recall and anticipate key events in stories	I can retell simple events from stories and my own experiences
	I can respond to two-part instructions	I can use sentences of 4-6 words
	I can listen in a group, with several responsive turns	I can use a range of tenses, which may have errors with irregular forms
		I can start a conversation with familiar people and ask questions
Reception	I can maintain careful listening and understand it is important to listen	I can acquire and use new vocabulary and social phrases
	I can listen to stories, songs and rhymes and non-fiction to develop understanding of vocabulary and knowledge	I can extend sentences with connectives
	I can clarify understanding and knowledge with questions	I can use talk for a range of purposes – imagine, retell, discuss, clarify, explaining how and why, expressing feelings, describing details

Strong Close Nursery School Intended Curriculum Progressive Skills and Outcomes

PRIME AREA 2. Personal, Social and Emotional Development

	SELF REGULATION	MANAGING SELF	BUILDING RELATIONSHIPS
By 36 months (Birth to 3 years from Development Matters)	I can recognise feelings – sad, happy, cross	I can help with dressing; feed and drink competently	I am interested in others' play and starting to join in
	I am aware that my actions can cause upset and start to show empathy	I can clearly communicate my needs for the toilet	I can recognise simple differences between me and others
	I can inhibit my own actions and distract myself from being upset	I am beginning to be independent in self-care but often need help	I can show affection and concern for people who are special to me.
By 48 months (3-4 years from Development Matters)	I can talk about how I am are feeling and can follow rules and ways of sorting out conflict, sometimes with adult help	I am developing a desire to do things independently	I am beginning to get to know other children beyond family or close contacts
	I can select resources needed to achieve a goal, sometimes with help	I can make healthy choices about food and drink	I can seek out others to share experiences
	I am able to focus in play and get involved in longer activities	I can choose appropriate ways to be assertive, sometimes with adult help	I can take part in community activities – clearing up , giving out fruit, fetching resources
	I can take account of the feelings of others, can take turns and share resources sometimes with support	I can usually manage hygiene, toileting and simple dressing independently	I can play in groups beyond one or two other children
Reception	I can recognise and identify feelings: sad, angry, worried, happy, and excited. I know the reasons for these feelings	I am developing confidence with unfamiliar activities	I am confident to develop relationships with unfamiliar children and familiar adults
	I can use strategies to stay calm sometimes with support	I am aware and can explain boundaries and behavioural expectations	I am developing important social attributes: kindness, sharing, listening
	I have plans/wishes and work towards them delaying gratification if necessary	I can explain how exercise, eating, sleeping and hygiene can affect health	I can take account of views and needs of others in play and when working together co-operatively

Strong Close Nursery School Intended Curriculum Progressive Skills and Outcomes

PRIME AREA 3.Physical Development

	GROSS MOTOR	FINE MOTOR
By 36 months (Birth to 3 years from Development Matters)	I am able to run, kick a ball and jump with both feet off ground	I can use finger paints, spoons, brushes and pick up small objects
	I can climbs, crawl and move through blocks and resources	I can pours drinks, and manage finger food
	I can scoots on pedal free trikes and scooters	I can try buttons and zips with help
	I can walk, run, jump and climb	I can use simple one-handed tools – glue sticks, brushes
By 48 months (3-4 years from Development Matters)	I can use large arm/ shoulder movement – throwing, painting, waving	I can show preference for dominant hand
	I am developing a range of movements – running, jumping, skipping, hopping, balancing, crawling under an obstacle.	I can use both one handed and two handed tools e.g. scissors, hammers, glue sticks and brushes
	I can manoeuvre scooters, bikes and trikes
	I can choose the right tool and movement for the task in hand – spade for digging, hoop for rolling/spinning	I can use a comfortable grip with pencils and paintbrushes
Reception	I can use and combine a range of movements	I can use small motor skills with tools: pencils, brushes, scissors, cutlery competently and safely
	I can show developing strength, co-ordination, balance, and agility	I can maintain posture and core strength
	I am capable with ball skills – throwing, catching, kicking, passing, batting and aiming	I can hold a pencil effectively to form recognisable letters, often correctly formed

Strong Close Nursery School Intended Curriculum Progressive Skills and Outcomes

SPECIFIC AREA 4. Literacy

By 36 months (Birth to 3 years from Development Matters)	COMPREHENSION	WORD READING	WRITING
	I have favourite stories, songs, poems	I can notice logos of interest – football team, fast food outlet	I can make different kinds of marks including lines and circular movements
	I can repeat familiar words from familiar stories	I can notice some print such as the first letter of my name, a bus/ door number	I can draw and paint
	I can fill in some missing parts of stories, poems and rhymes	I can notice print in my own name	I can give meaning to marks - 'That says ...
	I enjoy sharing books with adults
By 48 months (3-4 years from Development Matters)	I understand print has meaning	I can fill in missing words from rhymes/songs	I can use different kinds of marks for writing and for drawing/painting
	I can recall and join in with stories	I can clap to words/syllables in rhymes	I can write some letters, for example from own name
	I can follow text from left to right	I can read my own name label, logos, signs, choosing books/materials to read independently	I can begin to link some sounds to the formation of letters
	I can use stories in play e.g. characters and names, story in role play, settings from stories in role play.	I can hear sounds that are the same – such as first sound of own name
Reception	I can read and respond to words/phrases on notices/texts	I can read letters by saying their sounds	I can link sounds to the formation of letters
	I can use ideas/characters/vocabulary from stories in role play and discussion	I can blend letters into short words	I can write my own name, labels and captions
	I can suggest what might happen next	I can read simple phrases	I can attempt to write short sentences in meaningful contexts with full stops and capital letters

Strong Close Nursery School Intended Curriculum Progressive Skills and Outcomes

SPECIFIC AREA 5. Mathematics

By 36 months (Birth to 3 years from Development Matters)	NUMBER	NUMERICAL PATTERNS
	I can recite some numbers in sequence in context	I can notice patterns and may arrange objects/resources in patterns
	I know some important numbers – age, house number	I can notice objects that are the same and those that are different
	I can recite numbers and use random numbers in songs and games	I am beginning to compare some sizes, shapes and weights with gesture and language e.g. big, small, heavy, light, circle, triangle.
	I am able to compare amounts using e.g. “more” or “same”
By 48 months (3-4 years from Development Matters)	I can subitise to 3	I am able to construct, build and junk model – manipulate 2D & 3D shapes and use some names and descriptive language – round, straight, corners, sides
	I can accurately count to 5 in practical contexts	I can notice number patterns in stories and songs – e.g. The Enormous Turnip, Five Green Bottles, The Hungry Caterpillar
	I am beginning to make mathematical marks	I can recognise the same number of objects and more and fewer
		I can understand basic positional language
Reception	I can subitise beyond 3	I can compares size, length, weight and capacity in practical activities
	I can match numeral with number	I am able to continue, copy and create repeating patterns
	I can count beyond 10 and begin to know some number bonds	I can recognise meaningful times such as 12 o’ clock lunchtime, home time, bed time.

Strong Close Nursery School Intended Curriculum Progressive Skills and Outcomes

SPECIFIC AREA 6. Understanding The World

	PAST AND PRESENT	PEOPLE, CULTURE AND COMMUNITIES	THE NATURAL WORLD
By 36 months (Birth to 3 years from Development Matters)	I can explore and repeat movements that develop over time	I have an awareness of my own family life and activities – meals, religious places, clothing	I have a sense of what a plant is and different kinds of animals
	I can enjoy and explore the natural world at school	I can notice differences and similarities with peers – family life, religious places, food	I have an awareness of the natural world through small world play, growing plants and being in the garden
	I can enjoy and explore the natural world on visits out of school	I have an awareness of the world through small world play – farm, garage, train track, dolls' house	I can notice details of natural objects and living things
		I can notice details of the built environment – roads, shops, houses	I can explore natural objects, plants, creatures and materials in the environment
By 48 months (3-4 years from Development Matters)	I can comment on photographs, pictures of myself and my family	I can talk about special times or events for my family	I can talk about objects I have seen and explored such as plants, animals, natural objects and materials
	I can notice and comment on differences between now and then drawing on my own family experiences	I can show interest in different occupations and ways of life through role play, visitors and stories	I can comment and ask questions about the natural world, seasons and talk about why things happen
	I can talk about my own Learning Journey	I have a positive awareness of the differences between my family cultures and those of others	I am developing an understanding of the cycle of growth, decay and changes.
		I know about my own environment and other places/countries through visits, pictures and family experiences	I can show care and concern for living things and the environment
Reception	I know about the work of familiar community workers	I can talk about, names and describe the life of my family	I can explore the natural world and collect, smell, listen, and record.
	I can comment on pictures, stories, oral tales, artefacts, buildings from past	I know about features of local and other environments including other countries	I can talk about features of plants, animals, materials, environments
	I can comment on differences/similarities from the past of artefacts, buildings, people, stories within my own life	I can recognise people that have different beliefs and ways of celebrating	I can understand the effects of the changing seasons on the natural world around me, and changes in materials, such as those caused by changes in temperature and cooking

Strong Close Nursery School Intended Curriculum Progressive Skills and Outcomes

SPECIFIC AREA 7. Expressive Arts and Design

	CREATING WITH MATERIALS	BEING IMAGINATIVE AND EXPRESSIVE
By 36 months (Birth to 3 years from Development Matters)	I can explore different materials using my senses to investigate them	I can join in singing favourite action songs and anticipate phrases and actions
	I can make different kinds of marks	I can explore sounds by banging, shaking, tapping or blowing
	I can experiment with blocks, colours, marks and patterns	I can play with toys creating my own storyline, pretending
	I can explore colours, textures and constructions using range of materials	I can participate in action songs and rhymes, dancing, and music making
By 48 months (3-4 years from Development Matters)	I can use materials, tools, textures and techniques to express my own ideas	I am beginning to develop complex narratives in small world and role play
	I can get involved in pretend play using pretend objects	I can create movements, role play, songs and music
	I can talk about what is created and how	I can play, share and perform songs, music and dance
Reception	I can create colour, texture, form and design in my work and express my ideas and feelings	I can build a repertoire of performance arts: songs, dance and role play in a group or on my own
	I can use and creates props and use materials in role and pretend play	I can begin to adapt musical and performance techniques I have learnt
	I can safely use a range of tools, materials and techniques and talk about my own work	I can choreograph my own dance, develop narratives in role play and storytelling, and compose my own music